

Event: Honoring Women in Mathematics

Date: Sep. 17, 7:00-9:00 pm and Sep. 18: 2:00-4:00 pm

Location: Tom Jackson Building

Dr. Suzanne Lenhart, from UT-K and ORNL will give a distinguished lecture, she will speak about how mathematics can be applied in everyday life (as well as some of her research in modeling) as part of the program to "Honor Women in Mathematics."

Topics:

1. How mathematics can be applied to everyday life?

The speaker will talk about rabies and CPR.

2. Mathematical Modeling of Fisheries Harvesting

Refreshments will be provided.